Homeroom, at the beginning of the year, consisted of a weekly meeting for each class level. The purpose of this meeting was to enable counselors to get in touch with students and to allow for the distribution of special information. In December our newly appointed principal, Mr. Hosler, announced that the institution of a daily homeroom was a necessary step toward the betterment of our school. This controversial issue was met with confusion and disdain by many faculty members and students. Some found it difficult to understand why a daily homeroom was now necessary, as there had been no such program for the past 2½ years. In order to exhibit their vehement disapproval 34 students refused to attend homeroom and instead gathered in the courtyard for a rally. 16 people were ultimately suspended. The purpose of homeroom, all were told, was to increase communication between students and homeroom teachers and to insure that each student heard the daily bulletin.

If one were to walk through the halls of Niles East after the 3:00 rush for the buses the school would appear to be empty. It would seem as though the faculty and student body alike had packed up and gone home. For some this would be true but for many, the day's activities would be beginning. In reality, behind many of the closed doors, meetings, rehearsals and various other activities are taking place. Niles East offers many possibilities to students who wish to become involved in extracurricular activities. These activities cover a variety of interests and attract many participants.

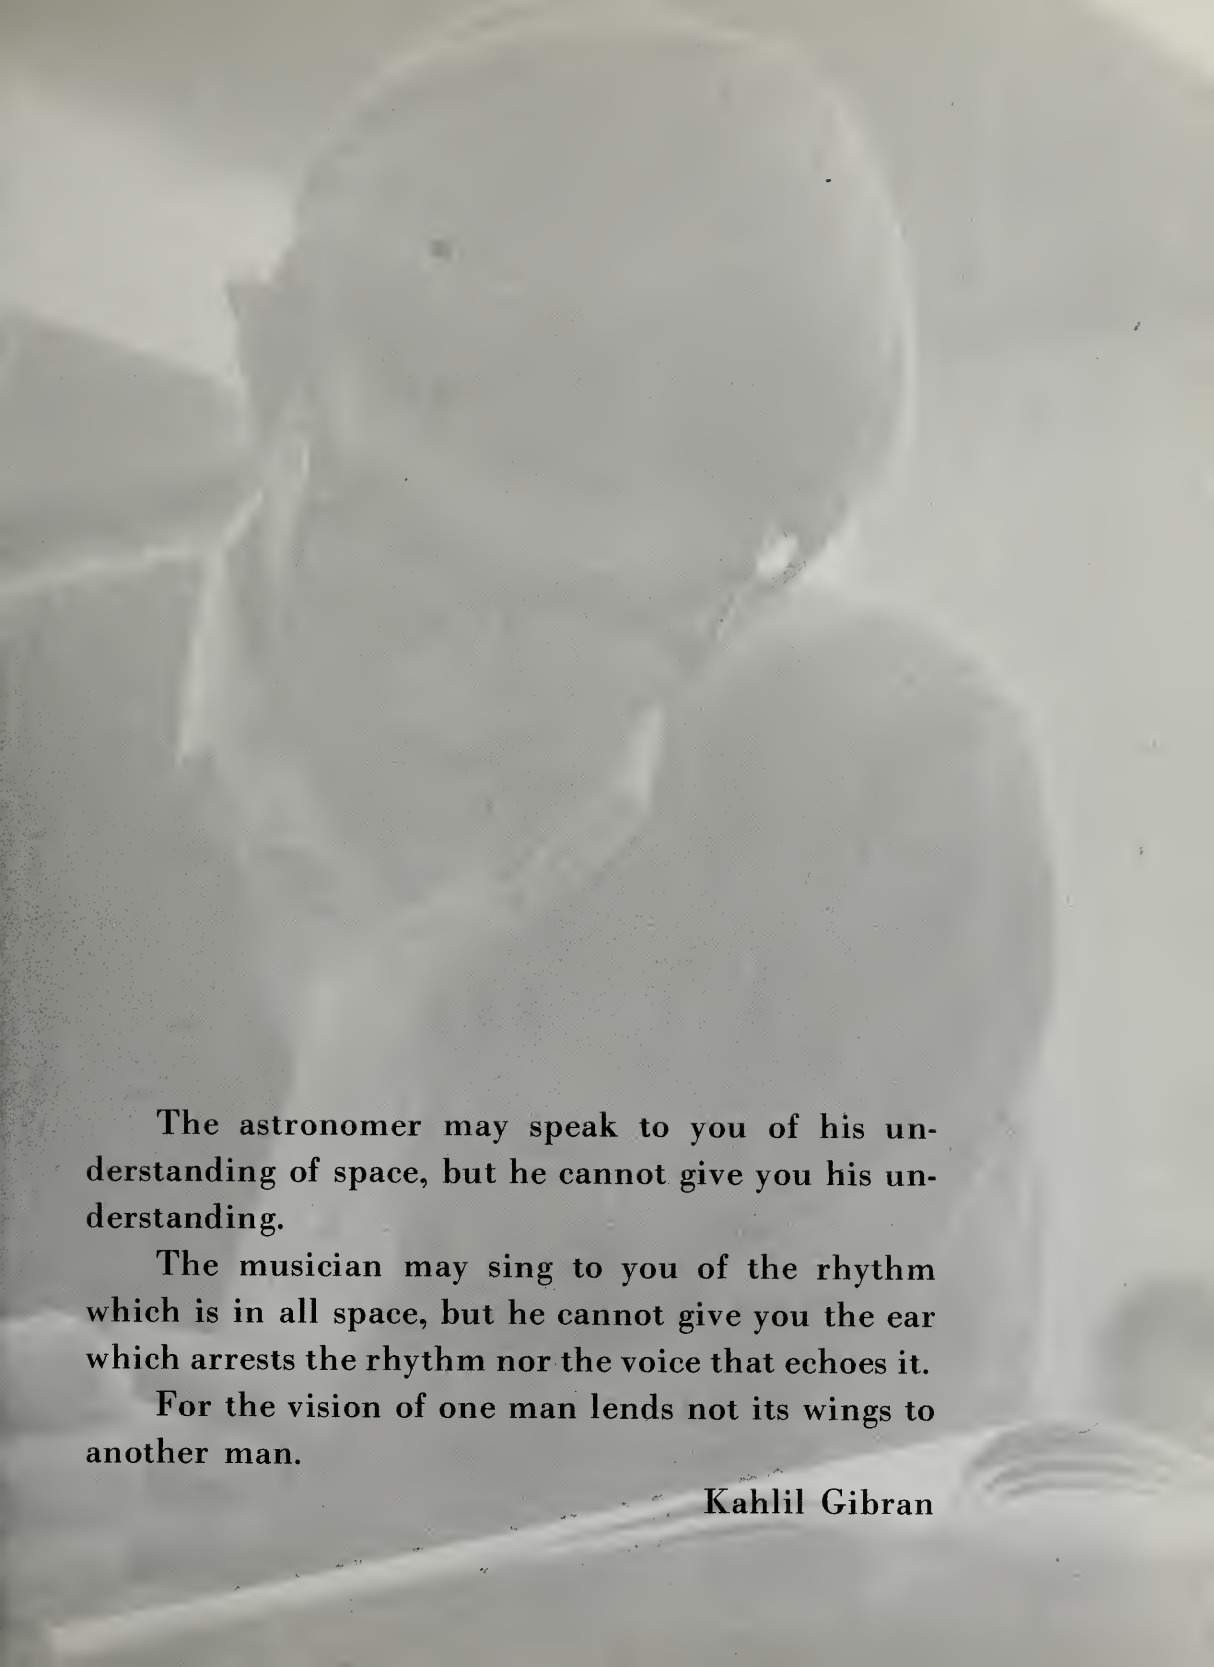
Then said a teacher, Speak to us of Teaching.

And he said:

No man can reveal to you aught but that which already lies half asleep in the dawning of your Knowledge.

The teacher gives not of his wisdom. If he is indeed wise he does not bid you enter the house of his wisdom, but rather leads you to the threshold of your own mind.



The astronomer may speak to you of his understanding of space, but he cannot give you his understanding.

The musician may sing to you of the rhythm which is in all space, but he cannot give you the ear which arrests the rhythm nor the voice that echoes it.

For the vision of one man lends not its wings to another man.

PROM

Saturday Night 7:30 p.m.
The North Shore Hotel
May 31, 1974

Though rumor had it that proms were outdated, a record two hundred forty people attended last year's celebration. "The Trip."

The couples filled the room at the North Shore Hotel where they were served an elaborate seven-course meal and entertained by the music of "Chapter IV." It was a tight squeeze when all the students tried to dance at once, but nobody seemed to mind.

The eventful evening was highlighted when a drum roll signaled the announcement of the court, including Prom King and Queen: Len Upin and Laura Page.

Whether the dance was a "trip" into fantasyland or tradition, it was a definite success which convinced East students that proms are here to stay.

FRESHMAN MIXER

Saturday Night 8 p.m.
Girl's Gym
September 14, 1974

As we all know, the first few days at Niles East are usually filled with much confusion and exasperation. This held especially true for the incoming freshmen, who were unusually apprehensive.

After the first week, however, much tension was relieved and by Saturday night, the Class of '78 was ready for its first social event of the year; the Freshman Mixer.

Many students participated, though more were to be seen talking in Trojan Hall than dancing in the gym. Wherever the students might have been, the evening was successful, and for most this was a fine beginning for their first year at Niles East.

HOMECOMING

Friday-All Night
Pre-Homecoming Activities
October 18

Was it raining or were the breezes blowing? No one even noticed—they were too busy preparing for the Trojan Homecoming on the following day.

Crowds gathered in the stands of Isaacson Field for the evening's boisterous pep assembly at precisely 7:30. With cheering from all participating, the evening proved to be very exciting, except for the disappointing guest appearance of Wally Chambers. The liveliness was back, however, by the time Dr. Colver introduced the 1974 Homecoming Queen and Her Court.

Then, back to the houses, as all of the students worked diligently to complete their floats which, by the end of the weekend, pointed out that life does differ from the movies—it's real.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming Parade
Saturday Morning, 9:00 A.M.
October 19

Based on the theme of "Movies", this year's Homecoming Parade was more successful than in previous years, with much credit going to float chairmen Suzie Soltan and Holly Wagner, and homecoming chairman Mary Unruh. After working hard all night, the participating students gathered across the street from Niles East on Saturday morning at 7:00 A.M. for the judging of the best float. There were over fifteen colorful creations, each representing a different school organization.

By the time the big day arrived, the weather was rather dismal, with temperatures in the forties and occasional drizzling. Despite the unfavorable conditions, the turnout was sizable. The parade ended about 10:30 A.M., with the announcement that the music float had deservingly won first place.

HOMECOMING

Saturday Night 8:30 p.m.
Homecoming Dance
Girls' Gym
October 19, 1974

Homecoming, in all its tradition, was celebrated Saturday night, October 19, with a semi-formal dance. Adhering to the theme of movies, the gym was cleverly decorated with foil and old movie posters which gave the gym a festive atmosphere.

A large number of East students attended the dance, where they were entertained by the music of Buster, and all anticipated the 10:00 introduction of the Queen Pat Viteri (Far Right) and her court.

Despite the day's defeat, the students rejoiced and had a lively, enjoyable evening, making the dance a veritable success.

REFLECTIONS

Variety Show
Niles East Auditorium
November 21-23

This year, Reflections focused on "Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness." Many facets of American life were portrayed through the songs, skits, and dances, showing a broad interpretation of our society.

In a whirl of exciting entertainment, the show underlined a message that "It's time to start living." The talent and versatility of the many students involved gave the show a liveliness which kept the audiences interested from the first act on opening night, until the end of the finale on closing night. The show not only carried a meaning, but it kept alive the good spirit and reputation which Reflections has been known for in the past.

REFLECTIONS

Backstage
Niles East High School
September—November

The show must go on! That was the attitude of 113 cast members and over 100 other hard workers constituting band, crews and directors of Reflections. As they slaved for 8 months to write the show, and 2 months to finally put it together, it was that idea that rang through each of their heads.

Under the excellent stage direction of Marc Rush, Susan Shelley and Michele Soltan, music direction of Naomi Ruben, Bob Hotton and Linda VanRoyen, choreography of Sandy Klein and Ilene Korey, technical direction of Jim VanderKloot and set designing of Cindy Trawinski and Stan Pressner, thoughts of a true look at the American way of life were shown. Everyone worked, fought and laughed themselves into an experience that can never be duplicated.

MYSTERY THEATRE

Niles East Auditorium

The drama department introduced a new form of entertainment to Niles East this year. Mystery Theatre, a collection of one act plays, was student directed with the aid of producer Mr. Jerry Proffit. "Two Bottles of Relish," "Two Crooks and a Lady," "Curse You, Jack Dalton," and "Nobody Sleeps" were directed by David Barack, '75, Steve Schwartz, '76, Susan Shelley, '76, and Mark Flitman, '75. The Mysteries were performed with the audience seated on a portion of the stage providing a new twist for Niles East theatre with closer proximity to the action and suspense.

ILLUSIONS

Dance Company Show
Jan. 31-Feb. 1
Niles East Auditorium

The newly formed Niles East Dance Company presented its first annual show, Illusions, proving to the public that it is going to be a real success. With the direction of their sponsor, Ms. Shari Kouba, the dancers spent many hours creating and rehearsing the various numbers which eventually added up to a polished show.

A variety of moods and styles, expressing the individuality of the choreographers, were portrayed in the show, highlighted by a fairy tale ballet, a tap number, and a ballet quartet performed with the assistance of male dancers. Priority to choreograph went to seniors and girls with ideas for novelty numbers. This combination of experience and variety created the basis of an exciting and versatile show.

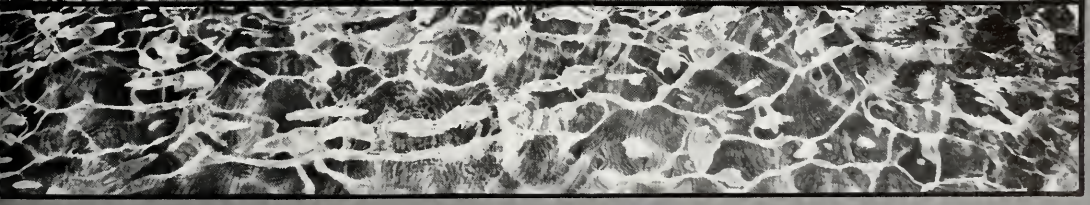
RIPPLETTES

The 1974 Ripplettes Swim Club, sponsored by Ms. Berke, is one of the organizations of the Girls' Athletic Association that produces a show each year. Last year on May 2, 3, and 4, the synchronized swim club presented "A Tribute to Walt Disney." This imaginary production contained many familiar tunes and comical characters. The girls worked hard and had fun. And as always, the show was a success.



This year's season ended with success for the Girls' Track Team. The girls won four out of six meets and placed third in the Central Suburban League. Three members took first place—Sue Kozub in the long jump, Becky McCracken in the 80 yard hurdles, and Margaret May in the mile run. Under Miss Totemeir's coaching, this was one of the team's best seasons.

The girls on the track team are: (Back Row: Left to Right): Jamie Borkovitz, Mary Binnall, Margaret May, Sue Stahlberg, Pam Schnell, Donna Lloyd, Pat Maierhofer, Laura Gunderson, Becky McCracken, Coach Totemeier. A spirit of enthusiasm and sportsmanship was the feeling reflected by each girl on this year's Softball Team. The girls put in much hard work practicing daily at Oakton Park. Under the direction of Coach Vanderwilt, the combined efforts proved to be a rewarding experience for each participant.

The 1974 Girls Gymnastic Team competed in 10 meets with fine performances on all four events—horse, floor, beam, and uneven bars. Next year with the return of Greenspahn and Moses, East should have a strong experienced team.

BOWLING

The 1974-75 bowling team consisted of sixteen girls, practicing an average of 3 times a week. The team had a total of six meets, in which they met girls from other schools. All home meets and practices took place at Oakton Bowl. Team effort and a lot of hard work made this year's team outstanding.

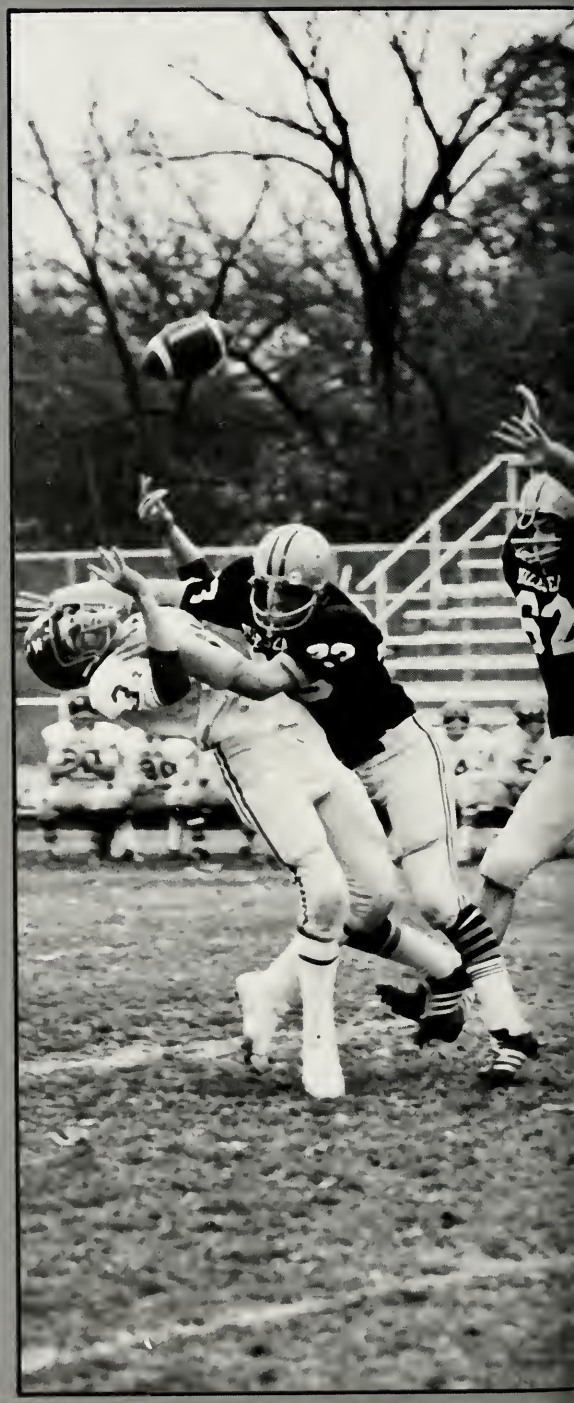
ATHLETICS



"Wait until next year." Has this become the chant of the Trojan football fan? Maybe so, but the record does not tell the whole story. No win-loss record can record the hard work, fighting spirit, determination and team work of this year's players. This is especially true of linebacker Greg Salterelli and offensive tackle Bill Urbanus, who were named to the All-Conference team. Awarded honorable mention were Pete Christopolous and Dean Pueschel. In addition, captain Henry Rollick, whose spark and spirit united the team, quarterbacks Adam Retzler and Ralph DeBendetto and cornerback Harold Gordon distinguished themselves throughout the season.

Hard work paid off this year for the Varsity Cross Country team with their best record in many years. In addition to this record there were other bright spots. Most valuable runner, Jr. Mark Lichtenstein, by running ninth in the CSL Conference Meet, broke Steve Sussman's school record by thirty seconds, being named an All Conference Runner in the process. In addition to Mark, outstanding juniors Larry Bower, Mike Kite and Hal Sloan will be returning to next year's squad.

The frosh-soph team had an impressive and encouraging season, winning four team trophies, including two for first place. Outstanding freshmen Ed Santucruz, Bruce Bower and David Larson formed the core of this team. Under the guidance of Coaches Ristow and Madsen this year's freshmen will help make Niles East become a power in cross country.

GOLF

A good golfer retains his self-control and pride, two attributes so elusive to most other athletes. Coach Oswald's players maintained these qualities this year as they compiled a nearly even won-loss record, led by a marvelous 38 stroke dual meet average by team captain Ron Rzadzki. He was backed up with fine campaigns by Flip Gagerman, Mike Ohlwein and Ken Kramer. Returning with Gagerman next spring will be juniors David Cohan, Scott Winkler, and David Oif, aided by sophomore phenoms Jordan Lohn and Rick Martini.

SOCCER

Three years ago, a soccer program was initiated at Niles East. In its first two seasons the soccer team proved highly successful and exciting, thus earning a reputation as a powerful and talented team. This year's team was no exception. While achieving a successful 11-6-1 season, they gained more respect and strengthened their reputation.

Receiving all-conference honors this year were captains Phil Adelman and Hugo Donado and leading goal scorer Pete Fosses. Other outstanding performances were given by seniors Mike Stone, Gene Guerrero, all-divison selection Bob Matz and goalie Mark Borofsky with a record eight shutouts.

More success lies ahead in the future with the return of juniors Mark Brines and Nick Tanglis and the addition of sophomores Danny Stone, Bill Prim and John O'Malley.

The foundation has been laid for a future Niles East powerhouse.

GYMNASTICS

Gymnastics combines a splendid potpourri of man's skills and talents into a single wavelength. Patience, endurance, pride and strength are all produced in a gymnast as the winter months progress. By season's end, an outstanding ring man or trampolinist has raised his self-esteem as well as his scores. A brilliant horse man or high-bar artist has dedicated himself so that hard work and perseverance come naturally to him, making each one fully aware that he cannot rely on his teammates to boost his ego or bolster his confidence. Success demands split-second timing and nerves of steel. The performance is exclusively his own.

GYMNASTICS

Tom Sokalski's gymnasts, hurt by lack of depth and by numerous injuries, managed to overcome these problems and showed Niles East fans a brand of gymnastics reminiscent of the marvelous squads of years past.

One of the top horsemen in the state, Mike Burke, consistently displayed his astounding skills by taking firsts throughout the year, often reaching the high eights and low nines. Steve Pollice, East's top trampolinist, hit his letter perfect routine repeatedly and with confidence, while floorman Brian Abrams, helped the team in the same manner with his grueling but breathtaking performances.

Carrying much of the load this season was captain and all-around man Neal Sher. Taking first in the Niles North and Rich Central invitationals, he established himself as one of the foremost all-arounders in Illinois.

Next year's Trojans will be hurt by the departure of these seniors and also, Phil Adelman, Barry Grodsky, Steve Irsay, Gary Cohen, Brian Borkan, Paul Milstein and Mike Stein. Yet this should be compensated by willing juniors Chip Auerbach, Matt Rosenberg, Dave Abrahamson and Carl Taibl among others.

This was a building year for the Niles East fencing team, one in which the athletes, as well as the coach, gained valuable experience. The team, with only two seniors, was young and has a great amount of talent. First year coach Gralewski saw some of this young talent develop this past season. Juniors Jim Osness, Scott Wexler, and Larry Labow and senior Joe Jans, by performing well, were fine examples of what Niles East Fencing can produce.

Most team members will be returning next year, and if they are as enthusiastic and dedicated as they were this year, Niles East fencing can look forward to a bright future.

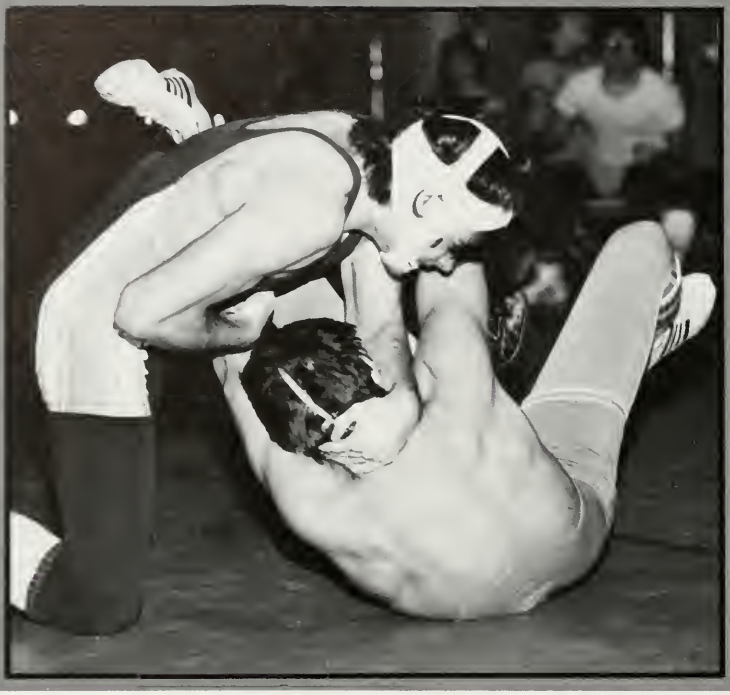
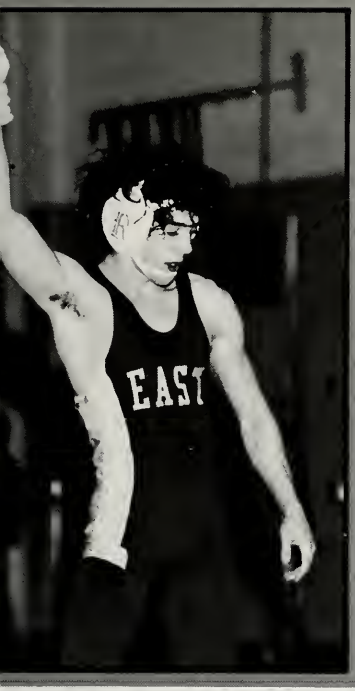
FENCING



WRESTLING



Coach Fred Richardi has helped make wrestling one of the most exciting and competitive sports at Niles East. At the outset of this season, it was not expected that the Varsity grapplers would be contenders. Lacking veteran seniors, the gap had to be filled with less experienced underclassmen. There are, however, other elements necessary in the composition of a winning team. This year's team possessed such qualities as desire, aggressiveness, dedication, power and quickness. The result was the most successful wrestling team Niles East has seen in recent years.

The cunning of Jeff Rock, the strength of George Christopoulos and the skill of Paul Kostyniuk were major factors contributing to the team's outstanding record. Exceptional performances were displayed by juniors Pete Christopoulos, Joe Colucci and Mike Hinske. Freshman Rick Yale proved that experience isn't the most important asset by compiling an excellent Varsity record.

The future of Niles East wrestling appears promising. With the return of Christopoulos, Hinske, Colucci and Yale, along with sophomores Mark Sunshine, Bruce Hoffman, Daryl Ullberg and David Hinske, next year's team should be triumphant.

BASKETBALL

Things did not look bright for the Trojan cagers as they embarked on the 1974-75 campaign. Long standing Varsity coach Gary Cook did not return to guide this year's team and was superseded by the controversial Jack McKeil, a stern disciplinarian. Because of his inability to get along with his players, it was soon apparent that McKeil was a poor choice for the job. He left early in the season and was replaced by the popular sophomore coach Emil Capitani.

When the Trojans took the floor, the fans knew they were in for a style of basketball unseen at East for quite a while. School spirit seemed to magically return to Niles East whenever the cagers entered the gym. The aggressive, enthusiastic way they performed gave opponents a taste of what desire can do to a team.

BASKETBALL

One could not have asked for a more exciting season. The cagers were in every game, playing much better than their record indicates. They upset powerhouse New Trier West and almost stunned top-ranked Maine South. They overcame a twelve point deficit in the final quarter to defeat Glenbrook North. Perhaps the most exciting contest was a heart-breaking loss to arch rival Niles West, in which the Trojans tied the game at the final buzzer to send it into overtime.

Leading the Trojan offense was 6'7" senior John Harles, fourth highest scorer in the Central Suburban League. Juniors Neil Schreiber and Terry Greenberg also scored high. These three, along with sparkplug tandem guards Bob Warsaski and Mark Brines, formed the backbone of this year's squad.

Next year's team will be without Harles, Warsaski, and sixth man Cary Buxbaum, but Schreiber, Brines and Greenberg will be returning. Juniors Larry Fine, Bill Urbanus, Art Issacs, Bob Malcher, Jordy Melamed and Gary Wolf will also be back, with an additional year of experience under their belts. These players and the resurgence of school spirit give real cause for optimism about next year's team.

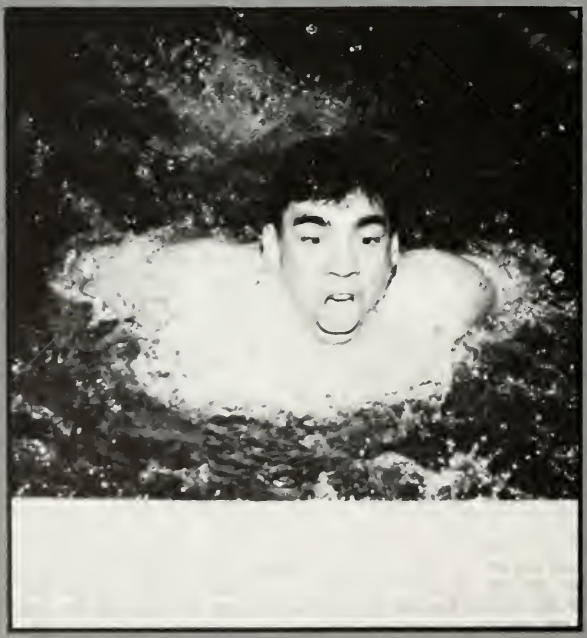
WEIGHT LIFTING

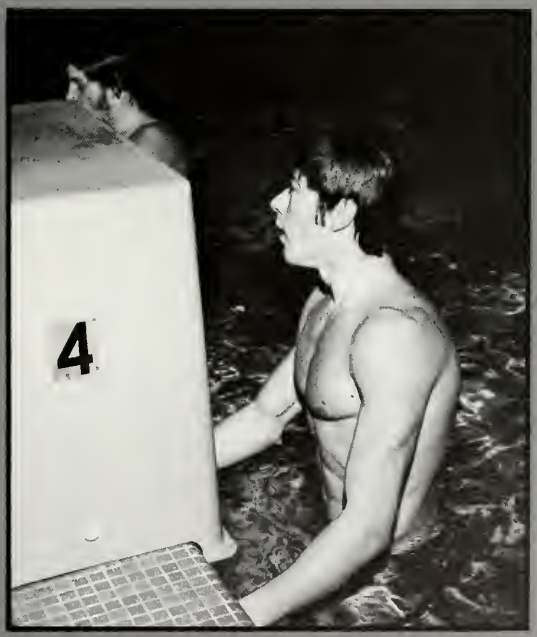
Since its inception at Niles East three years ago, the weight lifting team has consistently achieved success, and this year was no exception. Though their achievements often go unheralded, the weight lifters persist. They lift for personal satisfaction, to attain individual goals, for power, strength, health and fitness.

This year's power men performed well, both as a team and individually. Niles East defeated much larger schools, including some colleges. Steve Meister, the Illinois state power lifting champ in the 123 pound class, set the U.S. record for the dead lift in his class. He did this by lifting 375 pounds this summer at Erie, Pennsylvania. Steve Pollice, in the 165 pound class, bench pressed 275 pounds. Weighing 148 pounds, Howard Mathews dead lifted 425 pounds. All told, it was quite a rewarding season for the weight lifters.

SWIMMING



Despite a losing record, this year's swimming team was vastly improved over last year's, and provides much hope for the future. An administrative decision banned the Niles East pool from being used in meets and ordered the removal of the diving boards. This forced the Trojan swimmers to hold their home meets at North and West. Coach Larsen feels that this has hurt the team tremendously, and may have cost them a winning record. But despite this setback to the team's morale, the Niles East swimmers remained some of the most spirited in the league.



The improvement in this year's team can be attributed to a highly regimented practice schedule, as well as excellent performances turned in by most of the swimmers. Starring were seniors Ed Naumes, Rich Berkowitz, Dan Baigelman and Rod Lopez, as well as juniors Bob Torstensson and Ed Purcell. Strong hopes for the future lie in sophomores Danny Projansky and Steve Packer and freshmen standouts Mike Borovik and Scott Kleiman. If the swimmers can maintain their spirit and continue to improve, next year's team should be a strong contender.

EDUCATION

FAREWELL COLVER

Among the many changes that occurred at Niles East this year, was the resignation of principal Dr. Arthur Colver. Dr. Colver first became involved in District 219 in 1956 as a social studies teacher at West. Before coming to East as Vice-Principal in 1966 he had been Director of Student Activities and assistant principal at West and Hall Director at North. With eighteen years of service behind him, Dr. Colver has left District 219 for Plainview, New York where he has become principal of John F. Kennedy High School.

WELCOME HOSLER

Once again in our Reflections Yearbook we focus on another group of promising young people from Niles East High School. Our country has never had greater need for enthusiastic, capable citizens, ready to give rather than accept, open minded to be just and fair rather than intolerant, determined to earn their own security, happiness, and peace of mind. If ever a class possessed the qualities to succeed in these endeavors, the Class of 1975 has them. My hope is that they will be used constructively and faithfully.

For most students the yearbook appears mysteriously around the end of May. In reality, however, the yearbook is the product of nine months of sweat and hard work.

I would like to take this opportunity to express unending gratitude to the entire staff and to these dedicated individuals, without whom the book would not have been possible:

Assistant Editor-in-Chief, Occasions Editor, and friend Tammy Lothan.

Organizations Editor Judy Greiman, Athletics Editor Mary Krier, Athletics Editor Howard Chabner, Education Editor Paula Lashinsky, Underclass Editors Marla Levie and Shereen Cohen, Senior Editors Michele Soltan and Felicia Belon, and Art Editor Nancy Klehr.

Student Photographers Mike Stein, Mark Snyderman, Rochelle Goode, and Bob Koe.

Publisher's Consultant Ray Gilgenbach, Inter-Collegiate Press, and Root Studios.

Dennis Grabowski for his artistic opinion and cover design.

Assistant Advisor Marjorie Stevens for her time and patience.

Most of all I would like to thank Advisor Mel Pirok, whose ceaseless patience and constant guidance led the way to a most enjoyable year.

Marsie Hass
Editor-in-Chief

the Marine Corps. I know you will do a great job.
